The Jefferson County Agricultural Society and Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County are not responsible for errors, omissions, or unpaid premiums after September 15. No exceptions.

GENERAL RULES

1. All sheep exhibited must meet New York State health requirements. Animals from flocks under quarantine cannot be exhibited. All entries must produce health certificates when the animals are checked in by the State Veterinarian.
2. Exhibitors are limited to two entries per class.
3. Sheep must be sheared or blocked according to their breed.
4. Entries from Jefferson County will be given priority. Management reserves the right to limit the number of sheep entries to capacity of tent, and to return entries and fees submitted after that capacity is reached.
5. All sheep in purebred classes must be registered and exhibitors must produce registration papers before the competition begins.
6. The same animal may not be shown in both market and breeding classes.

7. Animals for classes 7 and 8 must be owned by exhibitor and/or members of the exhibitor's family.

Note: A lamb may have yearling teeth started, but not all the way up. A yearling may have 2 year teeth started, but not all the way up.
